Your personal library of research

Find

Search in one go across 20+ built-in search engines to find literature in the relevant field of research, from PubMed, Scopus, to arXiv, and Google Patents to many more.

Organize

Throw out those folders of uncategorized PDFs and let Papers take care of article and document organization.

Read

Focus on reading with the full-screen reader, which supports multicolor highlights, annotations, and tabs. Highlights and notes can be used to navigate the article, and exported to share or study.

Cite

Format citations in one of 7000+ citation styles. Cite in almost any application, because research goes beyond manuscript writing. Citing has never been easier.

Share

Papers Online offers shared collections and a personal reading list. Share the latest publications within the team, organize the journal club, collaborate on that next manuscript and more.
